

Louisiana Bird Records Committee

The following record was unanimously accepted at the Annual LBRC Meeting, 29 September 2001.

White-tailed Hawk (Buteo albicaudatus)

One immature (01-7) on 13 February 2001, Jefferson Davis: Welch landfill, on Landfill Road, ca 3 mi. NW I-10 Welsh exit; Mark Swan (photo).

Voting Committee Members: Donna L. Dittmann, Steven W. Cardiff, Paul M. Dickson, William R. Fontenot, B. Mac Myers III, Phillip Wallace, and Peter H. Yaukey.

First Circulation: This record was reviewed and accepted at the 2001 Annual Meeting, based on photographs and written documentation.

WHITE-TAILED HAWK - 1st Winter Immature
2 miles wnw of Welsh, Louisiana - 13Feb2001 - Mark Swan
Video stills - Mosaic No. 1

WHITE-TAILED HAWK - 1st Winter Immature

2 miles wnw of Welsh, Louisiana - 13Feb2001 - Mark Swan

Video stills - Mosaic No. 2

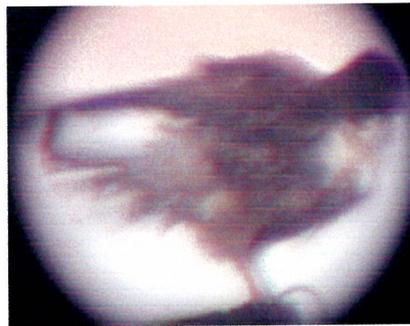

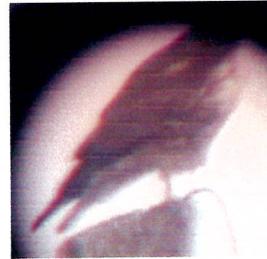

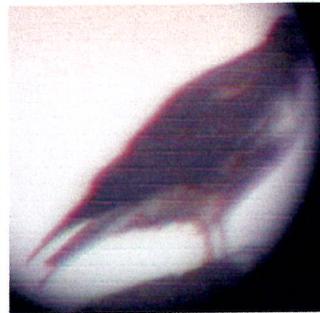

Video Camera looking through spotting scope

dull rufous
shoulder

unmarked
dark brown
upper wings

wings longer
than tail

Frames of sailing between flaps

moderate dihedral

Frames taken while bird was flapping

The basal
2/3 of the outer tail
feathers
are pale compared to the rest of the upperparts
of this hawk.